

Indiana Boer Goat Classic Summer Show Series

www.indianaboergoat.org | shows@indianaboergoat.org

The Summer Show Series is designed to encourage the exhibition, marketing and promotion of Boer and Meat Goats in and around the State of Indiana. Any show chosen to host a Summer Show Series Event must be open to all IBGC members and to all members of the National Sponsoring Registry.

Hosting an IBGC Summer Show Series Show

Members or local organizations wishing to host a Summer Show Series show for the following year may complete this packet and submit the information to the IBGC Show Secretary by June 30th the year prior. These dates and locations will be presented to the membership at the Annual Meeting held at the Indiana State Fair and the members in attendance will be solicited for input and opinions about the locations, which will be forwarded to the Show Committee.

Selection Process

The Show Committee shall select locations from applications for shows for the following season and determine the sanctioning national registry.

This selection process will be completed within 60 days AFTER the date of the Indiana State Fair meeting. The show information will be forwarded to the Executive Committee for final vote.

Consideration will be given to location, cost, and financial reimbursement available for each show location.

Approval

Once hosting locations have been approved, the Show Committee will contact hosting organization and inform them that they have been approved.

Show Chairman

Once approved, the local hosting organization will designate a Show Chairman who can communicate with the IBGC Show Committee to ensure the success of the show.

Host Organization Responsibility

The Show Chairman will be responsible for providing the following information to the Show Committee with the IBGC Sanctioned Show Application.

- Local accommodations, including recommended hotels and/or camping facilities.
- Number of available pens, and size of pens
- Name and Physical address of host facility
- If shavings and/or food will be available on site.

The Show Chairman and Local Hosting Organization will be responsible for the following:

- Organizing volunteers
 - Ring Steward
 - Announcer
 - Two (2) adults to help at the Entry Booth
 - Two (2) adults to weigh/check in goats before the show
 - Two (2) adults to check in classes during the show
 - One (1) adult to record placings of each class during the show
 - One (1) person in charge of the grounds – electric, wash racks, pens, etc.
 - Volunteers to pass out ribbons/awards for individual classes
 - National Anthem
- Pen Set Up
 - Pens should be set up and ready to go the afternoon before to the show.
- Wash Racks Open / Turned On
 - Wash racks should be available the afternoon before the show.
- Sound System
 - Ensure sound system is set up and operational and can be heard in all barns and common areas where exhibitors may congregate.
- Electricity on and available the afternoon before the show.
- Restroom Facilities
 - Ensure restroom facilities are open, clean and available and are supplied with necessary items by the Friday afternoon before the show.
- Providing information regarding local accommodations at least 90 days prior to show date.
 - Hotels, camping, etc.
- The hosting organization will be required to provide shavings available for purchase on site for the duration of the show.

The Indiana Boer Goat Classic also recommends (but does not require) that local organizations consider the following options. These are excellent ways to bring in additional revenue for the hosting club and ensure a quality experience for exhibitors and attendees.

- Food (breakfast, lunch, snacks and drinks) available on site.
- Camping on site (if available)

IBGC Responsibility

The Indiana Boer Goat Classic will provide the following:

- Liability insurance
- Qualified Judge
- Advertising and Promotion of the Event
- Youth Awards (Cash and Prizes)

- The IBGC Secretary/Treasurer will handle show entries with assistance from the local sponsoring group and Show Committee.
- The IBGC Secretary/Treasurer will handle sponsoring Registry Association paperwork.
- The Show Committee will work with the Show Chairman and Secretary/Treasurer to ensure that someone is available to coordinate ribbons, premiums, entries and awards at each show.

Pen Fees

Pen fees will be paid back to the local organization under the following guidelines:

- No Charge for Fairgrounds or facilities: The full amount paid to the organization
- Facility cost up to $150.00: 75% of pen fees paid to organization
- Facility cost from $150 up to $350: 50% of pen fees paid to organization
- Facility cost from $350 up to $550: 25% of pen fees paid to organization

Show Rules

Shows will follow the guidelines as outlined in the Indiana Boer Goat Classic Show Rules in addition to the rules of the sanctioning Registry Association. (A list of complete rules can be found on the IBGC website <http://indianaboergoat.org/>)

IBGC Points

The only way an independent show may gain permission to award IBGC Points is to become a part of the IBGC Summer Show Series and/or Youth Challenge Series, as one of the sanctioned shows in the series, and follow all the rules and regulations of the IBGC, including ensuring that all juniors participating in the show are members. At least one person in the group organizing the independent show must be a member of the Indiana Boer Goat Classic.
